JABA
Japanese American
Bar Association

AADAP
Asian American
Drug
Abuse
Program

APALC
Asian Pacific
American Legal Center

What is substance abuse?
How does substance abuse affect me, my co-workers, my family?
Where am I going to get that elusive "substance abuse" MCLE?

Substance Abuse in the Asian American Professional Community

a special presentation by the Asian American Drug Abuse Program

Wednesday, January 25, 2012

The Community Room @ APALC

1145 Wilshire Blvd., 1st Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90017 (corner Wilshire/Lucas)
Free rooftop parking available; enter at ramp off Lucas

7:00 pm – 8:00 pm

6:00 pm ~ Dinner (yum!)
6:45 pm ~ Introductions and stuff (cool!)
7:00 pm ~ Program (informative!)

$20 JABA members / $40 non-members

100% of fees collected are applied to meal costs and JABA and APALC programs

Information and RSVP

Mark Yoshida, APALC: myoshida@apalc.org • (213)977-7500 ext. 247
by Tuesday, January 24, 5:00 pm

- ✓ 1 hour of MCLE credit (in Prevention, Detection, and Treatment of Substance Abuse) provided – APALC is a State Bar-approved MCLE provider
- ✓ If you need a disability-related reasonable accommodation/alternative format for this event, please contact Mark Yoshida, APALC, at myoshida@apalc.org, (213)977-7500 ext. 247, or the California Relay Service at (800)735-2929 (TDD).